Scientific Games to Provide Bally Systems Solutions to Tin Lizzie Gaming Resort in South Dakota

LAS VEGAS – October 13, 2015 – Scientific Games Corporation (NASDAQ: SGMS) (“Scientific Games” or “the Company”) today announced Tin Lizzie Gaming Resort has selected the full suite of Bally Systems solutions for its property in Deadwood, South Dakota.

Tin Lizzie will install the Bally iVIEW and award-winning iVIEW Display Manager (DM) with Elite Bonus Suite (EBS) across 280 slot machines to drive excitement at its property. With iVIEW DM and EBS, casino operators can provide self-service player-account access, marketing messages and secondary bonus games on the main game screen – all without interrupting play.

The property will install the Company’s Beverage Ordering Service System (BOSS), which allows players to order both alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages right from the game screen without interrupting play, regardless of the device manufacturer.

The property will take advantage of Power Progressive Strike and Power Paytable Progressive, two new progressive jackpot EBS applications. Tin Lizzie will also deploy the Bally SDS slot management system to manage casino, slot, and hospitality data. SDS provides crucial game-monitoring data in real-time and fully integrates with other systems, including the Bally CMP player-tracking system, which the casino also selected.

Additionally, Tin Lizzie will utilize Bally Live Floor View, a powerful analytical system that connects to existing SDS and ACSC slot systems to provide customers with graphical and detailed information on current activity happening on the slot floor, and the Bally CoolSign media-management solution to deliver integrated communication and marketing on the property’s digital displays.

Austin Burnham, General Manager at Tin Lizzie, said: “We are excited to utilize Scientific Games systems solutions to elevate our operations and bring additional excitement to our first-class gaming resort. SDS/CMP delivers superior slot accounting and player tracking, and we believe EBS along with Power Progressives will offer our players a thrilling gaming experience that will keep them coming back.”

Sridhar Laveti, Senior Vice President of Gaming Systems for Scientific Games, said: “We are thrilled that Tin Lizzie has chosen to partner with us by implementing a host of our systems solutions. We are confident that these products will deliver a measurable return-on-investment and increased profitability by enhancing the casino’s gaming and entertainment experience.”

Tin Lizzie Casino is located in South Dakota’s casino destination of Deadwood. The property offers slot machines, along with table games, craps, and roulette.
