

Scientific Games India Recognized as One of Jombay's 2025 WOW Workplaces

ATLANTA – February 27, 2025—Scientific Games has been named one of Jombay's WOW Workplaces of 2025 in the Information Technology, Information Technology Enabled Services and Global Capability Center category at its Bangalore, India, location. This prestigious accolade reaffirms the company's commitment to fostering a culture of innovation, collaboration and inclusivity. The award highlights the global lottery leader's dedication to providing an exceptional environment where employees thrive personally and professionally.

The WOW Workplace Awards are an annual listing of organizations with the most WOW reviews. The award substantiates how “great,” “best” or “exceptional” a company is through testimonials and feedback across the web (including employee review websites) using Jombay's AI engine.

Pat McHugh, CEO of Scientific Games, said, “Being recognized as one of Jombay's WOW Workplaces is an incredible honor and a true reflection of the remarkable culture our team in India has built. Our India team's relentless dedication to innovation and excellence is inspiring and helps fuel our success with employees and customers worldwide.”

Scientific Games' Bangalore operations, established in 2015, recently expanded to a new, state-of-the-art facility, underscoring the company's growth and investment in its workforce. The center is a hub for research and development, software innovation, quality assurance and technology operations, contributing significantly to the company's global mission.

Mahesh Nanjundappa, Managing Director of Scientific Games India, added, “This recognition is a testament to our employees' hard work, creativity and commitment to making Scientific Games a fantastic workplace. At the heart of our success is the inspiring environment we've cultivated where every team member feels valued and empowered to achieve their best.”

Scientific Games operates across five continents, delivering a comprehensive range of retail and digital lottery solutions and lottery sports betting products and services to 150 lotteries in 50 countries.
