

SCIENTIFIC GAMES RECEIVES WORLD LOTTERY ASSOCIATION RESPONSIBLE GAMING FRAMEWORK CERTIFICATE OF ALIGNMENT FOR LOTTERY SUPPLIERS

LAS VEGAS and ATLANTA – September 17, 2015 – Scientific Games Corporation (“Scientific Games” or the “Company”) (NASDAQ: SGMS) today announced that the Company has received the World Lottery Association (WLA) Responsible Gaming Framework Certificate of Alignment. The certification recognizes that Scientific Games has been granted accreditation by WLA in accordance with the criteria set in the Responsible Gaming Certification Standards for associate members. Scientific Games, a leading supplier to the global lottery and gaming industry, was invited by the WLA in 2012 to help develop the pilot supplier Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) certification, which features Responsible Gaming Standards as the first component.

The WLA Responsible Gaming Standard is made up of eight areas, including employee program, product and service development, research, advertising and marketing communications, remote gaming environment, client awareness, stakeholder engagement, and reporting. The Responsible Gaming framework encourages and improves communication between lotteries and their suppliers.

"Scientific Games aligns closely with our lottery customers' business practices and overall mission to responsibly drive revenue to maximize proceeds to their good causes. Stakeholder engagement is paramount to the success of any Responsible Gaming program, and the WLA framework successfully educates and informs everyone in the industry about Responsible Gaming," said Harrison.

Scientific Games received a third party appraisal performed by Corporate Citizenship, a WLA-approved assessor that provided a comprehensive, knowledgeable and unbiased assessment of the Company's lottery operations and completed a Statement of Alignment reflecting compliance with WLA Responsible Gaming Standards for Associate Members.

Scientific Games develops and provides products and services to more than 150 lotteries in 50 countries around the world. The Company will continue to monitor for best practices in the area of responsible gaming, assess its Responsible Gaming program on a regular basis as well as review the guidance of government regulators, research conducted by the gaming industry and its own global knowledge and experience gained by supplying the lottery industry since 1973. Scientific Games will seek recertification to the WLA Responsible Gaming standard in 2018.

Forward-Looking Statements

In this press release, Scientific Games makes "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements describe future expectations, plans, results or strategies and can often be identified by the use of terminology such as "may," "will," "estimate," "intend," "plan," "continue," "believe," "expect," "anticipate," "target," "should," "could," "potential," "opportunity," "goal," or similar terminology. These statements are based upon management's current expectations, assumptions and estimates and are not guarantees of timing, future results or performance. Therefore, you should not rely on any of these forward-looking statements as predictions of future events. Actual results may differ materially from those contemplated in these statements due to a variety of risks and uncertainties and other factors, including, among other things: competition; U.S. and international economic and industry conditions, including slow growth of new gaming jurisdictions, slow addition of casinos in existing jurisdictions, and declines in the replacement cycle of gaming machines; ownership changes and consolidation in the gaming industry; opposition to legalized gaming or the expansion thereof; inability to adapt to, and offer products that keep pace with, evolving technology, including any failure of our investment of significant resources in our R&D efforts; inability to develop successful products and services and capitalize on trends and changes in our industries, including the expansion of internet and other forms of interactive gaming; laws and government regulations, including those relating to gaming licenses and environmental laws; dependence upon key providers in our social gaming business; inability to retain or renew, or unfavorable revisions of, existing contracts, and the inability to enter into new contracts; level of our indebtedness, higher interest rates, availability or adequacy of cash flows and liquidity to satisfy indebtedness, other obligations or future cash needs; inability to reduce or refinance our indebtedness; restrictions and covenants in debt agreements, including those that could result in acceleration of the maturity of our indebtedness; protection of our intellectual property, inability to license third party intellectual property, and the intellectual property rights of others; security and integrity of our products and systems and reliance on or failures in information technology and other systems; challenges or disruptions relating to the implementation of a new global enterprise resource planning system; failure to maintain internal control over financial reporting; natural events that disrupt our operations or those of our customers, suppliers or regulators; inability to benefit from, and risks associated with, strategic equity investments and relationships; failure to achieve the intended benefits of our acquisitions; incurrence of restructuring costs; implementation of complex revenue recognition standards or other new accounting standards; changes in estimates or judgments related to our impairment analysis of goodwill or other intangible assets; fluctuations in our results due to seasonality and other factors; dependence on suppliers and manufacturers; risks relating to foreign operations, including fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates, restrictions on the payment of dividends from earnings, restrictions on the import of products and financial instability, including the potential impact to our business resulting from the affirmative vote in the U.K. to withdraw from the EU, and the potential impact to our instant lottery game concession or VLT lease arrangements resulting from the recent economic and political conditions in Greece; changes in tax laws or tax rulings, or the examination of our tax positions; dependence on key employees; litigation and other liabilities relating to our business, including litigation and liabilities relating to our contracts and licenses, our products and systems, our employees (including labor disputes), intellectual property, environmental laws and our strategic relationships; influence of certain stockholders; and stock price volatility.

Additional information regarding risks, uncertainties and other factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contemplated in forward-looking statements is included from time to time in our filings with the SEC, including the Company's current reports on Form 8-K, quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and its latest annual report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC on March 17, 2015 (including under the headings "Forward Looking Statements" and "Risk Factors"). Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made and, except for Scientific Games' ongoing obligations under the U.S. federal securities laws, Scientific Games undertakes no obligation to publicly update any forward-looking statements whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
